WOLSELEY SENT TO AFRICA TO HELP LORD KITCHENER?

Former British Commander-in-Chief Starts for Cape Town To-Morrow.

LONDON. March 14.—Field Marshal Lord Wolseley, the former Commander-in-Chief of the British Army, starts for De Wet. Cape Town to-morrow, and, although the officials deny that his trip is anything but a private visit, gossip con-nects it with the military situation. It is pointed out that Lord Wolseley's knowledge of South Africa, gained as a fighter and administrator, might be highly useful to Lord Kitchener either Tuesday March II .- Commandant Meniz. at the base, Cape Town, or at Pretoria. with the Heilbron commands of the Lord Wolseley himself says his trip is Boers, broke through the Heilbron-Wol-Lady Methuen will be a passenger on vehook blockhouse line, at Gottenberg.

is probable that right at this moment you are thinking of your spring overcoat—it is sometimes difficult to decide just exactly what you want-we have anticipated your difficulty-the illustration above shows a wide range to choose from - the short topcoat, characterized by a liberal tulness all around, the knee length overcoat, the long, loose, dashing great coat and the new paddo:k, broad shouldered, form-fitting to the waist line, with a gracefully flaring skirt. Not only does the illustration show all the new styles, but the way we interpret them—there is that about our garments which distinguishes them readily from the ordinary ready-mad: sort-shoulders are broad, sleeves wide, collars are long, narrow and snug fitting at neck-they attain the same elegance and style as the garments turned out by the best Fifth avenue tailors at $60 and $70. The prices range from $10 to $28.
